Your Drawing Challenge

PRIZE MONEY WORTH- INR 5000/-

Registrations are closed

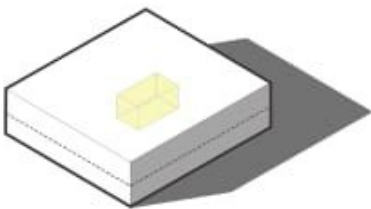

There are millions and millions of Architectural Ideas flowing across the social media platforms and each idea is impactful in some or the other way. Each drawing possess some power which explains an entire story within no time.

The Archresource's Your Drawing Challenge is hence laid down and can you submit a single drawing that tells the story behind a complex piece of architecture?

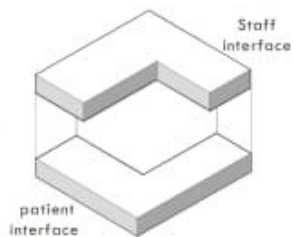

Challenge

You have to Submit a drawing of yours that communicates a new architectural proposal or existing piece of architecture, and the experience of those that would inhabit it. It can be located anywhere in the world and be at any scale. It can take the form of a plan, section, elevation, perspective or sketch. As long as it portrays part or all of a building or group of buildings, it is eligible.
